APPARENT BURGLAR ENTERS HOUSE

The old Arthur Rice house in Lihue, now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Kuhlmann, was entered by an unknown man last Friday night, who was undoubtedly bent on theft, or some other crime; judging from the suspicious circumstances under which he was discovered.

At about 3 a. m. Mrs. Kuhlmann was awakened from a light sleep by the faint rustling of the bedroom window blind. After a listening and becoming more and more suspicious, she awoke her husband, asking him to turn on the light, without mentioning her fears. Immediately upon the light being turned on, a crouching figure sprang up from the floor and made for the nearest exit. Running with head half covered by his fore-arm, the occupants of the room were unable to see his face and could only observe that he wore a blue stripe shirt and khaki pants, his feet being bare. Kuhlmann sprang out reaching for a loaded shot gun and chased after the retreating figure, at whom he fired a charge, not before he had reached the trees in the yard, thus preventing sure aim.

No trace of the recalcitrant could be found, when a search was made later, nor it is known whether the charge hit him or not. If hurt to any considerable extent, he will no doubt be easily traced, meantime the police are working upon what slight clues they have at hand.

BASEBALL BEGINS NEXT SUNDAY

Battalion athletic officers have completed arrangements whereby a double series of battalion games will be played, taking up eight Sundays; to be followed by a double regimental series to include the Hospital Corps. The best battalion team as indicated by percentage during the first series, will be eligible to compete in the regimental series.

There will be two games each Sunday in each battalion.

First Battalion.

A schedule for a second series has also been received from the second battalion, but as the regimental is scheduled to begin on August 27th it is presumed that this will be played later.

A NOTABLE ANNIVERSARY

During nearly the whole of his life Mr. Wm. Hyde Rice has been intimately connected with the Lihue Hawaiian Church, first as a boy in the Sunday School, then as a faithful attendant and Sunday School worker and now for many years as a wise leader and a generous patron as well as at times acting pastor, indeed the very existence of the church and assuredly its flourishing prosperity, have been due mainly to his unfailing interest and effort.

Accordingly it is not to be wondered at that the seventieth anniversary of his birth Sunday last was recognized and celebrated with affectionate regard by the church.

The newly installed minister Rev. S. Kapu taking for his text the words of the Psalmist "Thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the Lord" dwelt at some length on the value of such a man to the church and community and emphasized the well merited prosperity which, as in this case, came to such a man a prosperity in which all could rejoice, because it was more or less shared by all.

A special memorial of appreciation and regard was presented by Mr. Kapu on behalf of the church, to which Mr. Rice made an appropriate response in idiomatic and graceful Hawaiian. A special Hymn, composed for the occasion by Mr. Kapu, and set to music in the form of a duet and chorus added to the interest of the event and the chorus contest choir rendered some of the fine music prepared for the Hilo contest.

At the close of the service, as a surprise, the congregation were invited to participate in an ice cream cornucopia festival on the lawn, where, amid general rejoicing, and many congratulations a very generous supply of ice cream was made away with.

Later in the day there was a family dinner at which the numerous relations were gathered, and later still the Kapaia band tendered their good wishes and congratulations in the form of some choice music suitable for the occasion.

Cablegrams and wireless messages of congratulations were received during the day from friends and relatives away from Kauai.

Altogether it was a red letter day, full of kindness and good will; the kind that gives one a new zest in life and a new faith in humanity.

Macomber-Werner Wedding

A very pretty and well attended wedding took place last Wednesday evening at the Hanalei church when Elizabeth, the elder daughter of Edward P. Macomber of Honolulu.

The bride was given away by her father, while Miss Rose Werner assisted as bridesmaid. John Silva of Honolulu, ably filled the role of best man.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Menefoglio, the procession was led by charming little flower girls and the maids of honor, forming a very pleasing picture within the beautifully decorated church. The choir of the Huialoha Society assisted in the musical part of the program.

At the conclusion of the church service which was conducted by Rev. R. Pauki, of Anahola, the party adjourned to the bride's home where an elaborate luau waited the three hundred guests who had gathered from all over the island.

The bridal couple will spend a short time at Hanalei before returning to Honolulu.

Mrs. A. G. Horn of Honolulu, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Hopper of Lihue. Mrs. Horn is accompanied by her two small daughters.

A New Minister

After a considerable pastorless interim during which Mr. Wm. Hyde Rice has been acting, the Lihue Hawaiian church have been fortunate enough to secure the services of Rev. S. Kapu, one of the leading Hawaiian ministers of the Islands, as well as one of the most graceful and effective preachers.

Mr. Kapu has for the last 12 years been teaching hygiene and music in the Lahaina-luna school in English, a somewhat remarkable accomplishment for a Hawaiian. Prior to that time he had held several important pastorates.

He has a wife and six children, all of whom will be a welcome addition to our community.

Pines Ripen Rapidly

Both the Kauai Fruit & Land Co.'s canning plant and that of the Hawaiian Canneries have been taxed to their utmost capacity during the last few days, endeavoring to take care of the immense amount of fruit which has matured unusually fast this season. This same condition is reported from Oahu, and would seem to be due in part to climate conditions.

Mr. Farley Travels

Tax Assessor J. K. Farley sailed from Honolulu today for the Coast, a vacation trip which will take him to various parts of the States. He will be away about three months. J. M. Lydgate will have charge of Mr. Farley's work in the absence of the assessor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilcox gave a very enjoyable swimming party at their Koloa beach house last Friday. A delicious picnic was partaken of by the score of guests before returning to Lihue.

Auto Breaks Axle

Within sight of visitors at the Kukawa mountain house, a Buick runabout belonging to Judge Dickey, while unoccupied and stopped, suddenly began to move backward down the slight incline, finally gathering momentum and crashing down the precipice. Its progress, however, was arrested by some bushes about twenty feet below, where it rested until hauled out by mules. A broken axle was found to be the total damage.

Prank Leads To Court

In Koloa court yesterday Pedro Martin, defendant, who was charged with assault and battery, alleged that while sleeping in a cane field, plaintiff Manuel Pereira fired a guava at him, causing him to administer prompt and efficient chastisement, which led to the court, where it was proven that Pereira was not the boy who fired the murderous juicy missile.

The court gave lenient judgement against Martin, with due regard to his 50 years and large family.

Co M Enjoys Luau

Captain W. O. Crowell entertained the members of his company at a very tasty luau last Sunday in Waima. The occasion was to celebrate the capture of second prize in the company competition drills on the Glorious Fourth.

Waimea Canyon Float

A suggestion has come from Honolulu, and taken up locally, to have an elaborate painting of Waimea canyon in the next Carnival parade.

The exhibit, or whatever it may be called, will be prepared by experts and it is understood that the cost will be quite moderate.

Y. M. C. A. WORK IS EXPANDING

Y. M. C. A. activities are taking a strong hold of a number of different elements all over Kauai. Although its organizers are endeavoring to go slowly in organizing in the various centers, preferring to build up gradually and solidly, it is found that a considerable number of requests are being made at different times that branches of the association be allowed to go ahead with such lines of work as English classes or sport clubs.

In Makaweli there is already a flourishing class in English. A number of neighboring camps also wish to take up this line of work. Debating forms a strong feature of this part of the program, the Filipinos entering with great enthusiasm.

In Elele the work includes a number of different elements and is of a more general nature; while the Kekaha centre has specialized in mechanical drawing and following cooperatively, various discarded technical correspondence courses.

Lihue has so far confined its work among the Filipinos who are exceedingly enthusiastic in educational studies.

MRS. KAO PASSES AWAY

Elizabeth Kaeo, wife of County Attorney S. K. Kaeo, died last Tuesday night at her Nawiliwili home. Although Mrs. Kaeo had been ailing for a few days her sudden death came as an unexpected blow to both relatives and friends.

Impressive funeral services were held at the Kaeo home at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Kapu of Lihue, and Rev. R. Pauki of Kapaia officiating. Interment was then made in the Hawaiian church cemetery, where a large gathering of friends paid their last respects at the graveside, floral tributes being numerous and beautiful.

Deceased was a native of Molokai and she leaves a brother to mourn her loss as well as Mr. Kaeo.

Wailua Picnic

A very delightful boating trip and picnic was given by Mrs. William Hyde Rice last week in honor of her granddaughters, Edith and Juliet, who are back from the coast, spending their vacation with their parents. The party journeyed up the Wailua river partaking of a sumptuous repast which was already prepared near the rice mill. The return trip was made by moonlight bringing a much enjoyed affair to a close.

Lieutenant For Kauai

Lieutenant Tinker, of the 25th Infantry, U. S. A., will probably be detailed to the Fourth Infantry, Kauai, as general instructor, and if all goes well will arrive here early in August. Another sergeant-instructor will also likely be detailed to this island, Sergeant Gibson remaining at Lihue and the new sergeant taking the Waima end. Lieutenant Tinker, whose work is largely that of instructing the officers, is a married man and both he and his wife are favorites in the social set of the army.

Hearing For Browns

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brown, formerly of the Waima school, will be given a hearing by the Department of Education at Honolulu on July 31—this at their own request.

HONOLULU WHARF WORKER DROWNED

Joaquin Silva Cabral wharf worker brought from Honolulu to Kauai by the Ford Young Engineering Co. in connection with their reconstruction of the Waima wharf, was drowned while swimming in the Waima river last Sunday.

The employee under Superintendent McDonald had worked during the morning, and after knocking off for the day a number went in the water near the mouth of the river for a plunge. Silva when last seen by two of his mates was about 150 yards further the river than they, and apparently wading in water not more than breast high.

The two companions, however, observed him to disappear below the water and with thinking anything amiss, resumed their aquatic disportations; when they realized that Silva had not reappeared. Upon investigating the immediate vicinity of the accident, no sign of the man could be seen, and it was not until some fifteen or twenty minutes later that a Hawaiian named Kawehewa brought up the body. Prompt efforts at restoration of life failed. The coroner's jury yesterday brought in a verdict of accidental drowning. The dead man leaves a wife in Honolulu.

Correspondence

The Glass Nuisance on the Public Roads of Kauai

Koloa, Kauai, July 17th, 1916. Editor Garden Island:

Could not anything be done to effectively deal with the glass nuisance on our belt road? It seems to me that the Chamber of Commerce or the Board of Supervisors could well afford to take up this subject and enforce some beneficial result for all concerned; especially the various Supervisors, each in his own district, ought to be able to abate the frequency of the glass lying broken on so many places. Yesterday on the distance between Koloa and Waima there were not less than four places, most of them where the glass simply could not be avoided, being all over the road. I had a blowout on a tire guaranteed for 6000 miles, the rubber on which was not half used, simply on account of a small but deep cut from a glass splinter. If we had a provision on our statute books to make it a misdemeanor to willfully leave glass on the road and the Supervisors were given authority to punish the delinquents, we would at least be doing something to remedy a state of things from which surely a large number of innocent outcasts suffer considerable loss.

Yours truly,
Pro bono publico.

The Dean Wedding

D. William Dean, clerk of the Kauai Circuit Court, and Miss Hannah Maude Jacobsen, a well-known local school teacher, will be married at the parsonage of Central Union church in Honolulu at 8:30 tomorrow morning and will sail in the Matsonia an hour later for California. The young couple will return to Lihue late in September. The officiating clergyman at the wedding will be Dr. Brooks, who is temporarily filling the Central Union pulpit, in the absence of Dr. Scudder.

Mrs. Dean, Sr., will also be a passenger with her son and new daughter-in-law for California. She will be away about a year.
